Memorandum

TO : SAC (44-new)

FROM : Supv. ANDREW M. SMITH

SUBJECT: UNSUB.; SHOOTING OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY
CR

DATE: 6/5/68

At 9:00 a.m., 6/5/68, Supervisor CHUCK HARDING, Atlanta Office, telephonically advised he had just received a call from the Bureau instructing the Atlanta Office to call 12 other field offices immediately and furnish the following Bureau instructions:

All field offices are to remain alert to receive any information concerning any possible racial violence or demonstrations resulting from the shooting of Senator ROBERT KENNEDY. If any information is received in this regard, the Bureau is to be advised immediately by teletype. The Bureau does not desire to be advised of the administrative handling of these instructions, such as the fact that all sources have been alerted, and the like, but only is interested in receiving positive information of any racial violence or demonstrations.

On instruction of Supervisor HARDING, Supervisor JOE CONNORS in the Mobile Office was advised at approximately 9:30 a.m. of the above information.

SA MARVIN EUBANKS has been instructed to alert all of his sources and also have SA C. B. STANBERRY, who was not immediately available, to alert his sources and informants. SA EUBANKS is now in the process of alerting all Resident Agents to alert their sources and furnish any information immediately concerning any possible violence.

In the same matter, it is noted that at approximately 8:15 a.m., Chief JAMIE MOORE of the Birmingham PD telephonically advised as follows:

He has learned from Officer MARCUS JONES, who had obtained information from his sources, that the "Poor Peoples' March," which was camped near Mt. Zion Church at Bessemer, had on the morning of 6/5/68 hitched up their mules, apparently earlier than usual, as if they were leaving their camping place. However, apparently when they heard of the KENNEDY shooting, they engaged in a discussion concerning this and the people involved in the march then returned to their camping place, apparently cancelling, at least for the time being, their plans for immediate departure.

Chief MOORE advised he had not learned of any plans for any demonstrations or violence as a result of the Senator KENNEDY shooting, but said that if he did learn of any violence, he would inform the Birmingham Office. He requested that if we receive any such information that we inform him of it.

SA LARRY GETTINGS was advised immediately of Chief MOORE's call and he said he was then in the process of attempting to contact Officer MARCUS JONES, concerning the "Poor Peoples' March." SA GETTINGS has been requested to alert his sources to furnish information of any violence or demonstrations.

The Time Is Now

"We're not going to accept violence as a way of life in America," Sen. Robert F. Kennedy told campaign crowds in California last week.

On Tuesday, moments after he claimed victory in that primary, violence struck him down.

The Birmingham News believes that this nation faces grave crisis, a crisis not entirely isolated to the murders and attempted murder of public figures.

What is happening does violence not just to individuals but to American's political processes. What is threatened is the murder of the American dream.

This nation prides itself, rightly, in its nearly two centuries-long record of peaceful transition of government through free elections. Events of recent months—of recent years—cast a deepening shadow over that record. It is no longer inconceivable—though still by no means probable—that conditions could arise which would make the holding of a presidential election and the transfer of power to a new administration on schedule questionable.

It seems to The News that certain things are absolutely vital at this moment if America is to survive as a nation united:

The President of the United States must, must, stand before the nation and tell its people directly, forcefully, that their country now must insist on responsible citizenship. He made a start in the right direction in his televised address to the nation last night. But what is needed is much more than the appointment of another commission, however valuable the work of its distinguished members might be.

Too long have the President and other national leaders permitted the United States government to be bullied by an irresponsible few. Too long have they hesitated to speak out against gross violations of good sense if not of law.

Every citizen in this country, in public office or private life, who can exert any influence in behalf of a restoration of reason has an obligation to his country to do so.

The nation must insist on this.

Of course there is dissent; of course there are differences of opinion. There always have been and there always will be. But one of our strengths always has been our political system's ability to record these differences and to adjust to them.

There is machinery for change in America; machinery for peaceful, orderly redress of grievances.

What some people have fostered is not orderly change but the destruction of the very mechanism, our political system, which can effect it.

America must pledge itself to deal honestly with the needs of its citizens. It also must ask that all citizens have faith that the pledge will be honored; that they cease provocative conduct and join in a common rededication to preservation of the constitutional foundations of that faith.

It has been cited so frequently that it is by now a cliché, U. S. Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes' observation that the right of free speech does not carry with it the right to shout "Fire!" in a crowded theater.

Too many people have gone much too far in their attacks on America, however real their grievances. Too many people have remained silent rather than risk, in the emotional climate which has been generated, being misinterpreted.

It is not out of lack of sympathy for those who need assistance or out of lack of commitment to providing it that responsible leaders now should speak up. It is out of first and overriding concern for preserving this nation.

Those truly concerned about America, truly devoted to this nation, will have no difficulty noting the inflammability of the situation and acting to damp rather than fan it.

Those who do the opposite no longer can be treated as if they have no responsibility for their actions and their utterances.

The Kennedy Shooting

In terms of the personal tragedy to the Kennedy family, the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy is simply incredible:

The deaths of a son and a daughter in plane crashes were accidents, which could happen to anybody, the severe injury of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy also resulted from a plane crash, an accident.

But the murder of President John F. Kennedy and the attempted slaying of the senator were no accidents. These crimes were committed by men with deluded minds—either poisoned by the most evil bigotry or bereft of all powers of reason.

Murder generated in passion or in criminal greed (as in robbery) is no less tragic but is susceptible to some semblance of explanation. Assassination for the sake of assassination is beyond the limits of human reasoning. Yet it seems to gee with a trend which has infested our society—the wild and unrestrained notion that violence is justified by its objectives, that government can be stampeded by marches and extravagant villification of public officials, that in the end any end can be achieved simply by maligning or eliminating others.

It is a state of affairs which could trigger in an already diseased brain (and obviously has) the idea that if you do not like a policy, trample it (as in some of our universities) and if you do not like a man, slander and berate him—or shoot him!

This mood of malice has been unduly tolerated, indeed often encouraged (knowingly or otherwise) by some of our more avid politicians—by their over-heightened statements, by their appeals to emotion rather than judgment, by the abuse they have dealt those who differed with them.

It has been said before by some (after the Kennedy assassination and after the Martin Luther King assassination) that our society is "sick." Now it is being said again.

Many have seen a manifestation of the sickness in our own community in the cheers raised at the news of the death of President Kennedy and in the question raised by those who seek to justify the slaying of Dr. King and the shooting of Senator Kennedy: "Well, they asked for it, didn't they?"

Society must rid itself of this plague; and society can only accomplish this through its leaders, whoever they may be.

They must be leaders to whom justice is a sacred obligation and enforcement of the law a first duty, subject to no exceptions.

If any good can come from so despicable a crime as the attempt on Senator Kennedy's life, it can only be that the senseless misfortune inflicted upon him will provoke government (and the country as a whole) into restoring civilized processes and erasing so-called "civil disobedience" in all its vagaries.

The first evidence of this type of reaction already has occurred in the House of Representatives, where a vote on the Senate-passed anti-crime bill suddenly has been scheduled today—one of the many steps which have been called for during these many months and years of rising crime. Gun control is a top provision of this bill.

Meanwhile, every decent American, as a member of the overwhelming majority, will prayerfully wish for the prompt recovery of Senator Kennedy to full health and faculty. And will sincerely commiserate with the family which has suffered so much tragedy.

The effect of the shooting on the election is highly problematical and at this moment far beside the point.

The only issue now was aptly captured by Governor Hughes of New Jersey when he said:

"We'd better wake up and take the guns away from the lunatics before they shoot all of us."

If the bullet is to replace the ballot in American politics, if violence is to replace rhetoric and persuasion, then our way of life is lost. And that, pray God, simply cannot happen.

Mourning Is Not Enough

This is, as President Johnson proclaimed, a time for mourning. He has set aside Sunday as a special day of sorrow over the death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The senselessness of this killing naturally has shocked everybody, here or abroad; even the most cynical, even those with the least of morals as we understand them.

The unbelievable nature of the murder and the prominence of the victim, of course, make the shock as inevitable as it is justified. The mourning follows as a matter of conscience and decency, as well as sympathy.

It has to do with conscience because there is in each of us a feeling that it needn't have happened, that somewhere something must have been amiss, that if somebody somehow had just thought of something it might have been prevented.

Yet it is plain that the assassination was the work of a fanatic. He could have had only the most fragmentary excuse for his unforgivable act. Even if there was a conspiracy, only a handful could have been involved. There was no way of expecting such a horror, no warning any of 200 million Americans could have done to stop it.

But the question is universal: Why?

The answer is another question: Why do we have crime at all?

What instance, on the same night, when Kennedy was shot down were the Marine officers senseless? A hamburger shop in Washington? As a result of a trivial argument.

Why are there 11,000 willful murders in the United States every year? Most of the victims are not prominent people. There are no official mourning days for them. The shock in most cases is limited to their families, friends and neighbors. But they are just as dead. Their murders are equally senseless. The survivors are just as dead.

Things?

Are just as elusive.

There must be answers, because we cannot go on without them. The country cannot tolerate an 88 per cent increase in serious crime in seven years. It cannot have its citizens, urban and even rural, in fear of being slaughtered for a political change. It cannot condone a situation in which its political leaders risk their lives by being leaders.

Even the President of the United States, possibly the most heavily protected man in the world, relies on secrecy and surprise when he travels in his own country—purely as a necessary precaution.

There always has been crime. It seems in the past that it was wholly different. There always have been assassinations. The John F. Kennedy assassination was a warped and twisted product of their own "mis-education."

But the present has soared so fast and so enormously in recent years that crime is the nation's most gruesome and most difficult problem. It has been met, so far, with lament and exploring and here and there some effect. Technical improvements. But it has not been met head on.

The first and most important step was taken when the House of Representatives passed a bill sent to the President for his signature a relative-ly tough anti-crime bill—a bill to restrict hand gun sales to make it harder for convicted criminals to escape punishment on technicalities, to permit the use of wire-tapping in tracking down crime, to beef up police forces and police techniques.

By tragic irony, Senator Kennedy can take large credit for enactment of this law—which had been caught in a soft-headed quibble among some House leaders. Even President Johnson had intimated doubts about it, although he knew he will push for strong legislation. The Kennedy assassination has cleared all that and the way is paved by a handsome majority.

When the mourning has passed, will the sense of responsibility diminish? And there is to be any progress in the war on crime, not if a long wave of indifference—of willful blindness—of an unmanageable part—has been created.

Mourning the loss of Senator Kennedy is fitting and necessary. But if it does not result in expelling the pervading atmosphere of anarchy and fanaticism it will be no great credit to the Senator's memory.

.22 Pistol Is Popular Weapon

BY JANEAN MANN

The .22 caliber pistol, like the one used in the slaying of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, has become a popular weapon for use in committing crimes, law officers in Birmingham said.

This type gun has been used in several murders and numerous robberies in the city this year, according to Birmingham police Capt. Maurice House.

He blamed the easy availability of the small order and the inexpensive cost of the weapon as the main reasons behind the gun's common usage.

"You can find them for sale in magazines real easily," said Captain House. "They usually run about $10, $12 or $15," he said.

A Federal Bureau of Investigation spokesman also cited low cost as one of the factors in selecting this gun over others.

Also, the .22 caliber pistol when purchased over the counter is not as conspicuous a weapon as a larger caliber such as a .38, said the agent.

"A .22 is often used for target practice and most people don't think much about someone coming in to buy one. But a .38 is used mainly for shooting people and arouses more suspicion," he said.

Ammunition for a .22 is also much cheaper, running about $1 a box as compared to about $5 for a larger caliber weapons.

The .22 is also easy to fire and requires very little skill in hitting a target, said the agent. It is not usually used to or even kill a victim if he is hit in the right spot, he said. kill, but can seriously injure,

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 6/14/68

Specialist IV BRUCE EDWARD FULTON, RA 19878345, Maintenance and Support Division of "Hawk Project", Directorate of Arsenal Support Operations, U. S. Army Missile Command, Redstone Arsenal, Alabama, was reinterviewed for the purpose of ascertaining any additional information he may have recalled since the previous interview on June 10, 1968.

FULTON advised that he had given the matter a great deal of thought but it was very difficult for him to remember because it has been almost three years since he last saw SIRHAN.

FULTON stated that he recalled that CRAIG BLISS, a former student at Pasadena City College, was an acquaintance of SIRHAN. He said that BLISS, a Navy veteran, worked as a bartender at night while attending Pasadena City College. FULTON stated he did not know the name of the bar but it is located at the intersection of North Lake Street and Altadena Drive, Altadena, California. FULTON stated that he remembered a pretty girl he believed was a member of the same foreign-type club (name unknown) as SIRHAN. FULTON advised that he did not think that this girl was SIRHAN's girlfriend but just an acquaintance. FULTON said that he believed the girl's name was SONJA (phonetic). He could not recall her last name. FULTON described the pretty young lady as 19 years of age, 5'4", 115 pounds, with black hair and dark complexion, and possibly an Arab.

FULTON advised he could recall no additional information other than what he had just mentioned and the information furnished in the previous interview on June 10, 1968.

On 6/11/68 at Huntsville, Alabama File # BH 44-1772 -23
LA 56-156
by SA LEON N. FRANKENFIELD:scb Date dictated 6/12/68

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 6/14/68

Specialist IV BRUCE EDWARD FULTON, RA 19878345, Maintenance and Support Division of "Hawk Project", Directorate of Arsenal Support Operations, U. S. Army Missile Command, Redstone Arsenal, Alabama, was apprised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the investigation. FULTON furnished the following information:

FULTON stated that he is acquainted with SIRHAN BIRSHARA SIRHAN. He advised he first met SIRHAN at the "Student Union Coffee Shop" on the campus at Pasadena City College, Pasadena, California about September 1964. He said that he could not recall the last time that he saw SIRHAN but it was sometime prior to December 1965 because this is when he (FULTON) left City College. FULTON described his relationship with SIRHAN as a "campus acquaintance" in that he did not socialize with SIRHAN off campus, advising that he did not go to SIRHAN's house, nor did SIRHAN ever come to his house. He advised that his conversations with SIRHAN were usually held in the coffee shop during breaks or between, after or before classes. During these conversations, FULTON recalls discussions of Arab and Israel conflict, at which time SIRHAN had expressed his dissatisfaction with the administration and the newspapers because he believed that they sided with Israel. FULTON described SIRHAN as an introvert and a loner. He advised that SIRHAN never exhibited a tendency towards violence while in his presence. He advised that SIRHAN's tendencies were that of an individual who was loyal to his country. FULTON advised that SIRHAN was very devoted to Jordan and it was his (FULTON's) opinion, based on conversation with SIRHAN, that SIRHAN eventually wanted to return to Jordan.

FULTON said that he is sure that politics were discussed during conversations with SIRHAN but he could not recall SIRHAN mentioning his political views, party or specific political candidate.

FULTON denied he commuted to and from college with SIRHAN. He said that he did recall riding on one or two

On 6/10/68 at Huntsville, Alabama File # BH 44-1772 -24
by SA LEON N. FRANKENFIELD:scb Date dictated 6/11/68

occasions, in an old model Cadillac (year and color unknown) owned by SIRHAN but was unable to recall where he went during these rides with SIRHAN or the circumstances involved. FULTON stated that he enrolled in Pasadena City College in September 1963 and quit college (without a degree) in December 1965. He said that while attending college, he resided at 2446 East Washington Boulevard, Pasadena, California with his mother, JANE H., and younger brother, DOUGLAS.

FULTON advised that he usually took a bus to and from school although on occasion his cousin, RICHARD HUTTON, would pick him up or drop him off at home. FULTON stated that he did not know where SIRHAN lived.

He said that he recalled that SIRHAN worked at a service station at night while attending college. He could not recall the name of the station but it is located on a main street, one block north of Colorado Street, running parallel to Colorado Street, and east of the front entrance of Pasadena City College. FULTON further advised that he believed that SIRHAN was a member of some type of foreign club (name unknown) on the campus of City College.

FULTON stated that after he quit Pasadena City College, he enlisted in the United States Army and entered on duty February 21, 1966 at Fort Polk, Louisiana for boot camp. He completed his training on April 30, 1966 and then returned home on a fourteen-day leave. He then, after the leave, reported to Redstone Arsenal, where he arrived approximately May 14 and has been there ever since. FULTON advised he was at home on leave from March 6, 1968 through March 18, 1968, his most recent return to California. FULTON said that he did not see or talk to SIRHAN during his leave in 1968 or in 1966.

FULTON stated that usually the conversations with SIRHAN were in the company of other students. FULTON advised that it is possible that the following persons could recall something more specific about SIRHAN:

RICHARD HUTTON of 1495 Paloma Street, Pasadena, California;

ALLEN YACK, 53 South Meredith Street, Pasadena, California;

BH 44-1772

Specialist V HUDSON, MOLLOY and wife ANNETTE,
Hawk Project, U. S. Army Missile Command, White Sands,
New Mexico.

FULTON was instructed to give this matter forethought and he was told that he would be contacted for any further information that he could recall.

The following investigation was conducted by SA DAVID ROBERT EVANS:

AT AUSTIN, TEXAS

On 7/3/68, Miss ALICE DEXTER PEEL, Owner, Business Services, home residence 704 Rio Grande, advised she was on tour throughout Europe and the Middle East during the period from 5/12 through 7/2/68. She stated the first portion of her tour was sponsored by Brownell Tours.

PEEL advised she departed New York on the evening of 5/13/68 via Transworld Airlines, Flight 840, and arrived in Tele Aviv on the afternoon of 5/14/68. She remained in Tele Aviv through 5/16/68, and then departed by bus en route to Haifa, Israel. She indicated that the guide for this tour during this portion of the trip was JACOB HENIGMAN. PEEL advised on the morning of 5/17/68, she and members of the tour were on a full-day excursion and were en route to Tiberias. While at a rest stop she recalled that a member of the tour, whose identity she did not recall, asked her if she heard that KENNEDY had been shot. Miss PEEL stated this was the first time that she had heard this remark but that later it seemed that the rumor then spread like wildfire and the tour members were questioning each other as well as the guide for further details. Miss PEEL indicated that she could only assume that possibly the tour guide, JACOB HENIGMAN, had told the director of the tour, Mr. JACK KEARNS, that KENNEDY had been shot. Miss PEEL stated unequivocally that at no time did she hear either the director or the tour guide, JACOB HENIGMAN, make a direct statement concerning KENNEDY.

Miss PEEL stated she was not aware of the original source of the information that KENNEDY had been shot. however, she assumed that possibly the source was a broadcast over the Israeli radio. PEEL advised that tour members did question the guide, JACOB HENIGMAN, for further details; however, the guide indicated he had no further information. Miss PEEL advised that the guide upon subsequent questioning the next day after periodically listening to the news broadcasts over the radio replied that "No news is good news."

Miss PEEL advised that on the morning of 5/18/68, tour members continued to question the tour guide for any further details regarding KENNEDY; however, the tour guide indicated again that he had no information. She stated that the tour guide did periodically listen to news broadcasts on the radio and upon questioning would indicate to tour members that the broadcast contained no news concerning KENNEDY. Miss PEEL advised she can only assume that possibly there may have been some error in reporting a news item concerning KENNEDY.

San Antonio indices checked on 7/3/68, prior to interview of PEEL, disclosed no reference identifiable with Miss ALICE DEXTER PEEL.

On 6/4/68 the above-captioned person was a registered guest at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, California.

At 12:15 A.M. on 6/5/68, SIRHAN B. SIRHAN, at the conclusion of a victory rally by the late Senator ROBERT F. KENNEDY. (D-New York), in the kitchen area leading off the Embassy Ballroom shot and killed Senator KENNEDY, utilizing a .22 caliber revolver.

The Los Angeles Police Department requested the assistance of the Bureau in the location and interview of guests of the hotel in an effort to determine whether or not any of the guests might be in possession of any information concerning a possible conspiracy, might know SIRHAN, or might have seen him about the hotel on the night of 6/4/68.

All information, negative or positive, should be incorporated into an FD-302, as all information is being disseminated to the District Attorney, Los Angeles County, in report form, such reports being prepared by Los Angeles.

Trial date is tentatively set for the first part of November 1968, and it would be appreciated if the lead is covered in an expedite fashion. For your assistance, there is enclosed a diagram of the hotel area and location of the shooting.

22 copies of FD-302 should be submitted.

Crime and Punishment

Martin Luther King Jr., was assassinated last April 4.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated last June 5.

In both cases suspects have been arrested, have been indicted and are held in jail.

The trial of the alleged killer of Dr. King is now set to begin Nov. 12.

The trial of the alleged assassin of Kennedy was scheduled to start Nov. 1, but latest reports from California say it may now be delayed until next year.

There are many things wrong with our system of criminal jurisprudence. Court calendars are clogged; men who should not be are freed on bail to repeat their offenses; judges take long vacations when they should work six days a week; defense lawyers milk out of lenient laws and lenient courts every last minute, or month or year of delay that they can; Supreme Court decisions give unusual benefits to defendants.

There must be due process; the rights of every person accused of crime must be protected as the Constitution says they shall be.

But due process can be provided and protected and justice can be assured while at the same time suspects are given speedy trials.

Until there is quick and sure relationship between crime and punishment we are going to have more and more crime.

Courts and the bar, both having the responsibility, should know that justice—justice to the defendant and justice to society—demands that all criminal cases, especially cases like the King and Kennedy murder cases should not be interminably delayed by the web of the law.

ASSASSINATION OF
SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY
JUNE 5, 1968

On October 10, 1968, a young female telephonically contacted the Jackson Office of the FBI and identified herself as Miss Subrina Duble, white female, age 17. She refused to give her home address or telephone number but stated the nature of her call was to furnish the FBI with important information concerning the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy. Miss Duble related a very rambling episode of how she had met an individual in California whom she had cause to believe was involved in the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. She stated she has had knowledge of this since May, 1968, but declined to report this information due to threatening phone calls and letters warning her to keep anything she might know to herself.

She stated she is a resident of Alabama but did not wish to be contacted at home due to her father's condition, as she is afraid that any upsetting incident might cause him to have another stroke. She did state, however, that she could be reached at telephone number 762-9920, a pay phone in Pascagoula, Mississippi, anytime between 9:00 and 11:00 p.m. any night.

During this call she seemed very emotional and upset over something that had happened just prior to the call and she seemed out of breath and either crying or under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

ASSASSINATION OF
SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY
JUNE 5, 1968

Attempts were made to recontact her on the night of October 11 and 13, 1968, with negative results.

On October 14, 1968, investigation revealed that telephone number 762-9920 is located in an outdoor telephone booth on the premises of Larry's Standard Service Station located at Market Street and Highway U. S. 90 in Pascagoula. The proprietor of this station advised that the name Subrina Duble is unknown to him and that he closes at 8:00 p.m. Inquiry among people who live in the immediate vicinity of this telephone revealed that this is a Negro community and the name Subrina Duble is not known there. A review of Pascagoula City Directory and telephone directory revealed no listing for anyone named Duble.

G. R. Thompson, Identification Officer, Pascagoula, Mississippi Police Department, advised on October 14, 1968, that he has no record of anyone named Duble.

On October 16, 1968, this individual again called the Jackson Office and was connected with an Agent in Biloxi, Mississippi. She stated she had called to say that she wanted to drop the matter and did not want to meet with an Agent. She persistently declined to further identify herself or to agree to meet the Agent. She finally did agree to call him again after she had spoken to her father. Throughout the conversation with her, her conversation appeared to be rambling and disconnected.

On October 19, 1968, she telephonically contacted an Agent of the FBI at Biloxi, Mississippi, and at that time agreed to meet him in the lobby of the LaFont Inn, a motel on Highway U. S. 90 in Pascagoula at 9:00 on the evening of October 20, 1968. She again refused to further identify herself except to say that she is tall, has white blonde hair and a mole on her face.

ASSASSINATION OF
SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY
JUNE 5, 1968

On the evening of October 20, 1968, an Agent of the FBI remained in the vicinity of the lobby of the LaFont Inn from 9:00 p.m., until after 10:00 p.m., but Miss Duble did not appear.

Re Jackson airtel to Bureau, 10/21/68, and Los Angeles airtel to Bureau, 10/24/68.

Information copies are furnished to Mobile and Birmingham as they have had previous leads in this matter.

On 11/8/68, J. B. GIBSON, COD, Pascagoula, Miss., advised that on 11/7/68, at 2:05 a.m., he picked up LEE JOSEPH PITTS, JR., 546 N. Fair St., Pascagoula, a N/M, born [redacted]. He said this individual admitted to him that he had been calling young white boys in the community using the name ANTONY DeNEER and impersonating a young white French female. GIBSON advised that PITTS was using telephone number 762-9920 located at Larry's Standard Service, Highway 90, Pascagoula, at the time he was arrested. GIBSON said he noted this was the same telephone used by an individual using the name SUBRINA DUBLE who had been called to his attention earlier by SA JAMES J. FILES. He said he questioned the boy about these calls and is satisfied that he was the one who made the calls using the name SUBRINA DUBLE, although he did not admit it on interview. He said he did admit making the calls to the young white boys impersonating the young white girls.

GIBSON said that PITTS' mother, who is an intelligent and respected Negro in the community and who works for the Police Department as a crossing guard, told him that her son had in his possession recently literature from the FBI concerning employment opportunities, bearing the FBI phone number at Jackson.

Since there is nothing to indicate that PITTS has any knowledge whatsoever concerning this investigation, he is not being contacted.
